

By forcing their stations to show an anti-Kerry documentary shortly before the election, Sinclair is abusing the free use of public airwaves. This does NOT serve the public interest, as they are obligated, by law, to do. We need to strengthen, not weaken ownership rules.

Thank you,

Lane Adams